BERLIN, July 16.—A smashing German drive that has carried east of Kiev, capital of the Ukraine, was announced officially in Berlin today.

Confirming that German troops already have pushed east of the city—one of the major German objectives—the communistic said Soviet artillery shelled advancing German columns there.

At the same time authorities in Berlin claimed new German victories on the northern sector of the huge front, where Nazi and Finnish troops are threatening Leningrad.

Greatest Battle Of All Time Is Now Raging Along Eastern Front

Contradictory claims by rival press bureaus in Moscow and Berlin throw a thick smoke screen around developments in western Russia, where the greatest battle of all time is being fought on a front of nearly 2,000 miles, stretching from the Arctic ocean to the Black sea.

Besides this super-colossal grapple between the giant Nazi and the Soviet military machines all the world's previous conflicts pale into insignificance. Waterloo and Gettysburg are listed among the great and decisive battles that changed history. Yet there were hardly 200,000 men engaged, counting both sides, in either of these struggles. Two hundred thousand men today would make only about 15 divisions. Even Germany's little horse-and-buggy allies—Rumania, Hungary and Finland—have more men than that on the battle line and the total of combined Russian and German forces probably mounts close to 5,000,000 men. Even the gigantic battles of World War I were piker-play to this.

Three Fronts

MOSCOW, July 16.—Heavy fighting on the northern and central sectors of the front and a smashing Soviet air raid on the Ploesti oil fields of Rumania that caused great fires to billow into the sky were announced by the Russian high command today.

In a new communique the high command said fighting continued last night in the direction of Pskov, Polodsk, Perekhov and Vitebsk. "On other fronts," it added, "there was no important fighting and no change in positions."

"During the night the air force bombed mechanized units and the oil fields at Ploesti, where great fires were started."

An earlier war bulletin claimed three major set-backs for the Nazis and said a powerful German drive against Leningrad had received a crushing defeat.

Nazi Offensive Halted

On the central front, it was announced, the German offensive against Moscow via Smolensk had been halted while in the Ukraine the Nazi tanks leading a push toward Kiev had been encircled.

Tremendous battles were reported still raging on all three fronts, according to the announcement, which followed the newspaper Izvestia's (Continued On Page Two)

Twenty-Nine Face Trial For Sedition

Charged With Plotting To Overthrow U. S. Government By Armed Revolt

(International News Service)

ST. PAUL, July 16.—The federal government moved quickly today to bring to trial 29 members of the socialist workers party indicted under the sedition conspiracy act on charges of plotting to overthrow the United States government through armed revolution.

Victor E. Anderson, U. S. attorney, announced that the 29 would be brought to trial in Minneapolis as soon as possible. All he accused, three of whom are women, were ordered to post bonds of $5,000 each.

The conspiracy was alleged in the federal grand jury indictments to have been committed in twin cities, Chicago and New York.

Nineteen separate items of conspiracy were charged in two counts, and the defendants were accused of plotting to infiltrate into the industrial and agricultural positions with the aim of fomenting a revolt modeled after the Russian revolution of 1917.

A majority of the alleged plotters are officers and members of the General Drivers' Union, Local 544, of Minneapolis, stormy truck drivers' organization which recently withdrew from the A. F. of L. to join the C. I. O.

State Legislature Still Deadlocked

SPECIAL SESSION MAY BE FORCED

HARRISBURG, July 16.—Pennsylvania's deadlocked General Assembly may adjourn sine die today without reaching an agreement on congressional reapportionment and revision of the unemployment compensation, the two major issues which still remained unsolved.

In that event, Pennsylvania's 33 congressmen will have to be elected at large in next year's elections, unless a special session is called in the meantime, and the state will face the loss of millions of dollars in federal social security grants. The federal government may also assume supervision of the state's $160,000,000 unemployment compensation fund.

The census among legislators and leaders alike appeared to be that the 191st day of the longest session in 99 years would see the gavel fall for the final time. There was no assurance of this, however.

Still Deadlocked

Manila Waters Will Be Mined

Contact Mines Will Guard Manila

NO COMMENT ON ACTION IS GIVEN

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

MANILA, July 16.—For the first time since the American occupation of the Philippine Islands, the strategic waters of Manila and Subic bays will be guarded by contact mines, naval authorities announced today.

The mines will be in place by daylight tomorrow, the announcement said. All vessels, including small craft desiring to enter Manila Bay must proceed to the Monja Islands light, several miles off Manila Bay, and there hoist international call signals and await instructions from American naval control vessels. It was announced, a naval pilot and an inspection officer will board the incoming ships from the control vessel, or the control ship will lead the arriving ship through the mine fields.

Outbound ships, the announcement said, will receive instructions from the naval captain of Manila port.

No reason for the action was given, nor was there any comment on the announcement, official or otherwise.

Senators Show Opposition To Proposal For Longer Service For Drafted Men

WASHINGTON, July 16.—A fairly representative cross-section of the United States senate today voted decisively against Gen. George C. Marshall's proposal to extend the present one year's service of the 600,000 selectees now with the American army.

The same senators voted overwhelmingly against creation of a new American expeditionary force.

A poll by International News Service of all senators in the capital disclosed a 27 to 16 majority, (with 24 undecided) voting against keeping the selectees in the army beyond their year's service. Many senators in the undecided class said privately they were not yet convinced that the one year contract should be extended but would withhold judgment until they hear debate on the pending legislation.

The poll was not conclusive because 27 senators were unavailable but it did present a clear picture of the trend of opinion among senators now at their desks in the senate chamber.

Senate Bloc Plans Challenge On War

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Confident that the bulk of the country wants to remain at peace, leaders of the senate non-intervention bloc are considering introduction of a war resolution to challenge the administration's strength on the issue.

This was disclosed today as members of the group planned to follow up a formal challenge to the administration to ask for a declaration of war, voiced in the senate yesterday by Sen. Wheeler (D) Mont., their leader.

The introduction of such a resolution would put the issue over continued peace or entering the war on the side of England "into concrete form," one of the non-interventionists said. He said also that it could serve as a basis for formal debate over the president's foreign policy when designed.

The non-interventionists based their willingness to introduce a war resolution on what they claimed to (Continued On Page Two)

Find Acid Placed In Fire Hose At Pittsburgh Stations

New Hose Tamped With It Is Discovered At Downtown Fire Stations

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 16.—Fire hose in three engine companies—two of which are located in Pittsburgh's downtown "Golden triangle"—has been destroyed by sulphuric acid, Fire Chief Nick Phelan disclosed today.

He expressed belief the use of the acid was either "malicious mischief or sabotage." A fire captain, Eugene C. Bannan, concurred in this, explaining:

"I would say someone deliberately put it (the acid) on the hose there. I've been in the department 25 years and I've never seen anything like it."

The fire chief added: "If this keeps up our lines might break anytime we fought a fire—a time when speed is necessary. This is all new hose."

"There is no sabotage worse than fire. It couldn't have been an accident."

The first time the damage was noted was last May 26 when firemen fought a blaze in Sheraden and several sections of hose burst. Other sections were discovered when firemen made tests at engine houses July 7, and again on July 11. All of the acid-burned hose was found in engine companies Nos. 1 and 11, in downtown Pittsburgh.

Fire captains visited their chief's office this morning but they were unable to explain the situation. "If we are to be guided from news coming from England, the first line of defense is the fire department but we aren't going to have any first line," Phelan commented.

Naval Transport With Ouster Consuls Ready To Depart

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 16.—The heavily-armed naval transport West Point, carrying 452 ousted German and Italian consular representatives and propagandists, lay at anchor off Staten Island in New York harbor early today ready to sail for Lisbon.

The last of the axis agents, including Capt. Fritz Wiedemann, former German consul general at San Francisco, who flew from the west coast, were taken aboard the 26,000-ton vessel in a coast guard cutter shortly after midnight.

Sailing of the West Point, formerly the luxury liner America of the U. S. Lines was delayed, navy officials said, by submarine and general maneuvers off New York harbor.

When the season opened I said, that the winners looked like the Reds but Dodgers have them hanging on the worn and tangled ropes, and the Reds have faded badly, while the Dodgers gallop madly, knocking off some doubleheaders and destroying Cincy hopes, so I guess my guess was wrong on that morning bright and dewy when I picked the Reds to cop the rag when they began to play, but they're sunk and getting sunk, while that bunch of daisy dunks keep on winning double-headers, weather's eighty-six today.

viets contradict each other diametrically and with sweeping magnificence. Each side, according to its own press bureau, is winning the war hands down. One bureau or the other is doing a job of imaginative falsification that would make Annanias jealous.

Nothing New In War

There is nothing new in war, although there have been some changes in technique. In the days of Marlborough it was customary for a general to cheat a little even in his official reports. Napoleon, first modern master of propaganda, reduced lying to a system. "False as a communicative" became a French proverb. The little corporal even claimed to have won the Moscow campaign of 1812 until the bloody and frozen remnants of the grand army began to stream back into Paris.

Governments today seldom distort the facts much in their official communiques, but they create press bureaus to manufacture cheering news to keep their people happy. The citizens of one nation or the other are happy just now, but one nation or the other is due for a rude awakening in a few days. Both sides can't be winning the war.

Encircle Motorized Troops

Describing "fierce fighting" in which both sides suffered heavy losses, the communiques said that on the northern sector the Russian forces encircled motorized and mechanized troops attempting to advance eastward through the Pskov sector to the railway junction at Porkhov.

Red army units were declared to have "destroyed the enemy forces" by section, seizing a great number of tanks, trucks and all kinds of arms.

After this, said the communiques, "remnants of the enemy troops had to be drawn back to the west."

On the southern front, where Soviet troops are defending Kiev, the communiques said that "our troops fought tenaciously, counter-acting efforts by enemy infantry to penetrate by enemy infantry to join their tank spearheads," which were described as isolated and in a "precarious situation."

This action was taking place in the hard-fought Novograd-Volinsk sector.

In the central Vitebsk sector fierce fighting continued many hours against "motorized and mechanized enemy forces that made a vain endeavor to penetrate east."

Food Prices Move Upward

During Last Two Weeks In June Prices Of Foodstuffs Showed Increase

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 16.—Secretary of Labor Perkins today reported that retail food prices continued to move upward during the last two weeks of June.

The estimate rise in price of 18 staple foods which figured in a survey of 18 of the nation's cities, was 1.7 per cent, as compared with 1.6 per cent for the first half of the month.

The principal averages increases reported between June 17 and July 1 were: eggs 2.7 cents per dozen, lard 4.6 per cent, butter 1.3 cents per pound, pork chops one cent per pound and canned tomatoes 2.3 per cent.

Cabbage was the only food to show a substantial drop, declining 7.3 per cent. Prices of oranges and navy beans also went down by small amounts.

RESIGNATIONS OF ENTIRE CABINET GIVEN EMPEROR

Konoye is Yosuke Matsuoka, the Japanese foreign minister who recently toured Europe, visiting both Berlin and Moscow at a time when Germany and Soviet Russia were still allies instead of enemies.

Shortly before the resignation, the industrial army newspaper Kokumin spoke of the possibility of a German victory over Russia and urged that all steps be taken to insure the safety of Japan in such an event.

Recent reports in London have hinted at Matsuoka's resignation with the prediction that Mamoru Shigemitsu, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain, might be named to succeed him.

Conflicting Ideas

These reports said there were two conflicting schools of thought in political Japan. One was said to be urging a military attack on Russia to aid the German cause in conformity with the tripartite pact, while another and powerful element favored withdrawal from the axis and a rapprochement with Great Britain and the United States.

Rumors of an impending Japanese move against French Indo-China as a prelude to an attack upon the great Siberian base of Vladivostok were heard yesterday.

In an interview with International News Service, Lord Viscount of Deans, formerly permanent under-secretary at the British foreign office, predicted that Japan soon would make a "feint," probably in the direction of French Indo-China before openly entering the war against Russia on Germany's side.

Under strict interpretation of the tripartite pact, Japan was obliged to go to Germany's assistance when the Russo-German war broke out. According to the official German view, the Reich merely counter-attacked after the U. S. S. R. opened hostilities.

The tripartite pact compels Japan, Italy and Germany to go to the aid of one another at any time one of the signatories is attacked by a nation "not yet engaged in hostilities."

At the time the pact was drafted Russia was at peace.

Nearly 33 years more of life can be expected by the average Englishwoman of 40.

U. S. S. R., will undoubtedly offer tenacious resistance when siege is begun, official quarters admitted.

Military quarters spoke of "shattering blows" delivered to Red forces in the drive that enabled advance columns to sweep past Kiev in the past 24 hours. Official reserve indicated that completion of major manoeuvres was proceeding.

Several hundred strong bunkers around Kiev were taken by German forces in the past two days. All were masterfully camouflaged, it was said, and were recognized only when their guns opened.

A Russian counter-attack in the Kiev area was beaten back by German shock troops using liquid fire and hand-grenades. Incoming reports indicated scattered outbreaks of fighting all along the line as various pockets of Soviet units attempted to break out.

An official announcement issued shortly before noon said a Soviet supply column was annihilated yesterday by advancing German forces near Bjelaja, 38 miles east of Pskov.

Pskov lies in the Stalin line defenses about 160 miles southwest of Leningrad.

Says Tallinn Burning

(EDITOR'S NOTE: A dispatch from Stockholm quoted a Finnish pilot as reporting Tallinn, the capital of Sovietized Estonia, in flames. This account said Tallinn was virtually surrounded by attacking forces and that the Russians were preparing to leave the city.)

German military authorities said that a great "race to Leningrad" is now under way as the Germans and Finns on that front completed forging their nut-cracker grip.

Great pincer maneuvers swinging forward on the central front from Mogilev and Vitebsk were said to be enveloping Smolensk in preparation for a mighty push toward Moscow by Chancellor Hitler's panzer legions.

On the Ukraine front, it was stated, another great iron ring was asserted to be engulfing the Red army contingents defending the Kiev sector.

The German strategy, after "pounding the Stalin line apart," was described as a development of blitz moves in conjunction with the Finns and other allied forces, to keep the Red armies "dazed and on the run" without a chance to as certain where the next major German blows is coming.

HOPKINS TO MAKE NEW SURVEY IN GREAT BRITAIN

commerce is returning to London solely to bring himself up-to-date on Britain's position in the light of the Russian-German war, and to find out what the current needs of the British military establishment may be.

Hopkins first visited London last winter in advance of congressional enactment of the British aid bill. He was there for several weeks and conferred constantly with British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and other ranking members of the British war cabinet.

cost the state $2,000,000 without enactment of a new congressional reapportionment act, senate and house conferees who have been striving since June 10 to reach an agreement met once again at 1 o'clock (E. S. T.) this morning.

Three new proposals for redistricting the state were considered at an hour-long session. The conferees broke up without an agreement but decided to meet again at 8 a. m. (E. S. T.) The three new plans—11 others had previously been considered—were still in the "embryo stage," it was stated, but Sen. Leo C. Mundy (D) Luzerne commented that "the situation now looks considerably brighter than it did before." An agreement was still possible, he added.

Of the bill to revise the unemployment compensation law in line with federal requirements, at the same time extending the benefits to unemployed workers, Sen. Weldon B. Heyburn (R) Delaware, chairman of the senate conferees, had this to say: "It's all over." The Republicans had made their final proposal and the Democrats had refused to accept it, he stated.

MARY LOUISE MURPHY BRIDE OF JOHN MURPHY

Palm, combined with flowers and ferns placed on the altar of St. Mary's church provided a beautiful setting for the marriage of Mary Louise Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Murphy of Huron avenue, and John Murphy, son of Mr. John Murphy of Clinton, Ia., which was performed on Tuesday morning.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in white marquisette with full skirt, made en-train. Her long veil was caught in a crown of seed pearls. Gardenias and white roses made up her arm bouquet.

Miss Eileen Murphy, sister of the bride as maid of honor, was attired in pink lace with matching hat, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Paul Murphy, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Supplementing the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served in the bride's home to guests numbering approximately 75. In the afternoon a reception was held for friends and relatives from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph.D.

YOUTH LIKES DISCIPLINE

Often I discuss home education in character and citizenship, before service clubs. I plead for more discipline for the younger child in the home to train him in the alphabet of regard for the rights of others and respect for constituted authority.

Some months ago after I had addressed a service club in Rome, N. Y., among those who lingered to discuss the matter further were M. E. Shaw, scoutmaster of Rome and D. M. Reed, scoutmaster of Utica. Mr. Shaw said, "During the 18 years I have served in scouting I have never heard complaint from a boy about too much discipline while better than a thousand have complained to me of too little discipline in their troops. To which Scoutmaster Reed added, 'That fits my experience.'"

Some youths are beginning to say they wish their parents had disciplined them more while they were younger so they might be able now to discipline themselves better. I have heard several college youths make the assertion, "When I have my own children I am going to be more strict with them than my parents were with me. I'm going to protect them more than I was protected."

A certain junior high school teacher who is very skillful in handling boys and winning their admiration, told me he often hears a boy brag about how strict his dad or another teacher is with him.

In the long run youths welcome discipline that seems just, but by the time they are in their teens they may not easily acquire good self-discipline, in case they have not been fairly well disciplined at home and at school in earlier years.

I discuss ways and means of effective home control of the child in my books, "The Modern Parent," and "Marriage and Parenthood," and my pamphlet, "To punish or not to punish; when and how," which I trust may be found in your public library.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. What is one of the first things a youth should do on receiving his first pay check?

A. After paying his board he should visit a dentist for a check up and necessary dental repair; also go to a doctor for a general physical examination.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)
ATLANTIC CITY—Leon Henderson, federal price administrator, bluntly warns consumers and manufacturers of the threat of inflation: "Before long there will be more purchasing power running around hunting for something to buy than there are goods available. If that occurs to a substantial degree no power on earth can prevent inflation."

LONDON—Prime Minister Winston Churchill pays tribute to the fortitude of London under constant aerial attack: "London is so vast and so strong, she is like a prehistoric monster into whose armored hide showers of arrows can be shot in vain."

WASHINGTON—Secretary of Navy Frank Knox expresses the hope that the policy of aid to Britain will not lead America to war: "But in my eyes a war of defense against Nazism would be infinitely preferable to a peace accomplished by a surrender to Hitlerism and all that it would mean to the freedom and independence of the American people."

MILWAUKEE—Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, contends that America is engaged in an effort neither to make the world safe for Communism nor to make it safe for the British empire: "We are helping to resist aggression for one reason and for one reason alone—to make the world safe for America and for Americans."

Continuous and perpetual stay The red geraniums, come what may Not all men's hate nor all his greed Can kill the life in poppy seed, Or check the blossoms as they come To peony and delphinium.

Man's finest treasures through the night Fall prey to warfare's dynamite, And any skillful enemy Can sink his stoutest ships at sea. War leaves in rubble desolate All that genius can create.

But all unguarded in the sun On walls and trellis ivies run In dread of neither gas nor shell Blossoms the Canterbury bell; And never any rebus grows In terror of another rose.

Bible Thought For Today

Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.—Psa. 125: 4.

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 7:27. Sun rises tomorrow 4:44.

There are people who are more pleased by what they can do for other people than they are for what people do for them.

Business is so good on the railroad that excursions are being cancelled. We don't want to go anywhere anyhow.

Father—"Let me embrace you my daughter! Mr. Bowker has just asked your hand in marriage." Daughter—"Oh! but father I could never leave mother." Father—"Well, I will let you take her with you."

Those soldiers down south cannot be blamed much for booing a bunch of gals playing golf in shorts. Most any man would do that.

Mrs. Roosevelt drives her own car. She wants a car driven like she wants it driven.

CONVINCING
Skeptic Miss—"Can this coat be worn out in the rain without hurting it?" Fur Salesman—"Lady, did you ever see a skunk carrying an umbrella?"

Mrs. Oldwed—"How did my plan for utilizing my house result?" Mrs. Newwed—"In more leftover!"

IT'S HAPPENED
Stranger—"What will you take for that fine Jersey cow of yours?" Farmer—"That depends upon who ye be. Be ye the tax collector or has she bin killed by the railroad?"

Americanism: Trying to win friends in Latin America; threatening to stop oil shipments to Chile and Uruguay because they distribute it themselves.

We know a chap who don't like to be called a saloonkeeper. He wants to be called a "beverage purveyor." Set 'em up, again!

An "Eat More Meat Week" is being pulled off in this country. This whole people in Europe cannot get any meat at all!

Men are peculiar. For instance, a fellow who had not kissed his wife in five years shot a fellow who did.

Mother says Pap and she were engaged for 20 years before marriage because Pap insisted on trying proposing over a party line.

PERFORMANCE THAT REALLY COUNTS!

You may talk, if you will, of alluring, seductive young creatures with curves. Whose charms are easy on optics. Whose sight is a tonic for nerves. But if it's contentment you're seeking.

Regardless of eye-filling view. You'll seek out a gal of discretion. Who can perform on a cookstove too!

Stock Room Clerk: "I fell off a 30-foot ladder yesterday." Delivery Boy: "And you didn't even get hurt?"

Stock Room Clerk: "Oh no; I was on only the second rung when I slipped."

CRACKPOT IDEA OF THE MONTH

For romantic women who like to dream, Grocer Giffen of Lily Pond has his salesmen wear false faces of movie glamour boys. The enchanted customers now flock to buy!

May: "My new sweetie has to watch his p's and q's." Sue: "Why?"

May: "He's an inspector at the alphabet soup factory."

Right after they were married—a 48-year-old groom told an independence, Mo. judge—his wife said she was going to call a cousin and arrange to spend the night there.

He followed her to a phone booth, then to a taxicab and hasn't seen her since. The one-hour marriage was annulled.

People support the "better candidate" as a public duty, but they usually expect a private reward.

When peeling a cucumber, always peel toward the stem end, because at the stem is a little spot of bitterness, and if this is cut into first, it spreads a bitter taste over the whole cucumber. That's why.

Coax: "I received a keg of fish by express today." Hoax: "C. O. D.?" Coax: "No. M-A-C-K-E-R-E-L."

Have you roasting gear yet? People go to picnics to get something different—and they do.

We have not heard of the Pennsylvania legislature passing that law which demands that a voter must have a tax receipt before he can vote. They probably think it would be impossible for some of them to be elected with such a law. We had such a law once and Mr. Pinchot knocked it out.

Grand time: Attending a convention where liquor is free; passing out; coming home minus three teeth.

Mistress: "My husband's bringing friends to dinner tonight. Are you prepared?" Cook: "Yes, Ma'am. I've already packed."

Mrs. Newrich: "A dozen bottles of curry powder." Grocer: "You use it a lot in your cooking, don't you?"

Mrs. Newrich: "In my cooking? Why, no. I've been grooming my horse with it."

When a cop found a bird trying to roll up the white line on the street he didn't know what to call the crime, but disorderly conduct fitted it all right.

The best thing for a person to do when wanting a job is to ask for one from the person giving out jobs. Asking some one you do not know to help you get a job is all wrong.

The rise in the cost of things also hits the people who cannot find work and those who cannot work. How about them? They can't strike.

It looks as if the people of this country are not going to stand for soldiers having to take rough stuff from the officers in the camps. Quite correct!

Change Of Heart Toward Russia Seen
Problems Result From New Alliance
Convict Stalin Hirelings In Capital

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, July 16.—There was nothing inconsistent in the recent conviction of three Moscow agents on charges of illegal activities in this country. Yet it was a conviction which certainly did come at an embarrassing juncture—either in a day or two after State Undersecretary Welles' good luck expression in Russia's direction, in its fight with Germany.

Undersecretary Welles, presumably speaking with presidential approval, made it perfectly clear, to be sure, that we like Communism no better than ever we did; that we simply wish the Soviet forces well in their strife with the Nazis and Fascists.

Nevertheless it was awkward, before he had much more than finished pledging to Joe Stalin all the aid we're in a position to extend to him against Adolf Hitler, to have a trio of Joe's hirelings found guilty in a Washington court of criminal offenses, committed at the Kremlin's instigation.

The trouble was that we didn't know when the cases were launched, that Adolf was so soon to take the warpath against Joe, considerably to the democrats' advantage, provided that Joe could put up a stiff enough scrap at least to keep Adolf's hands full for some time.

The accused individuals were President Morris Liskin, Vice President Raphael Rush, and Secretary Norman Weinberg, of what's been known as the Brookline corporation, which, it's asserted, has been Communistically propagandizing in the United States for a long time, in Moscow's pay.

The World and the Mud Puddles

LAZINESS AND DISORDER

Whatever may be thought in general about Admiral Darlan's latest broadcast to the French people, there is one count in his indictment of the prewar French governments, which must be acknowledged true.

France fell, he said, from various internal weaknesses, among them the fact that between 1919 and 1939 the government and Parliament "legalized laziness and disorder."

It is a source of American weakness at present that we have done the same thing.

The epidemic of strikes which has paralyzed defense industries is strictly analogous to the strikes of the Blum regime in France. Our Congress, like the French Parliament, also has "legalized laziness and disorder."

Worse than that, its Chief Executive speaks of laziness and disorder as "social gains" and says that they must not be given up. The right to strike, the right to picket, the right to collect time and a half for all exertion over forty hours a week, the right to force free workmen to pay tribute to Labor Union bosses to hold their jobs, are all placed above the national safety.

Darlan's phrase is exactly descriptive of half the Wagner Act, half the Wage-Hour Act and more than half of the rulings of the National Labor Relations Board. By these agencies "laziness and disorder" have been legalized.

We may suffer the fate of France in consequence, unless there is a speedy change of heart in Washington. It is not too late yet for the de-legalization of laziness and disorder, perhaps, but there is not much time left.

Will Hear First Hand Reports Of War In Britain

British Leader To Speak To Dinner Meeting Of B. P. W.
On Saturday Evening

Miss Gordon Holmes, of London, England, is not only a famous banker, finance chairman of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women, but also president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs of Great Britain and Ireland, and she will bring vivid first-hand accounts of the British blitzkrieg and of the courageous reaction of the business and professional women under its perils at the dinner meeting, Saturday evening at the New Castle Field club, which is being sponsored by the local B. P. W. club.

The same energy and dynamic force which she applies to her own business has been directed by Miss Holmes toward the building of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs of Great Britain and Ireland. It is largely through her forcefulness and effective influence that the federation has added 28 new clubs and has more than doubled its membership in wartime. The national federation was started by Miss Holmes with Miss Zonola Long-streth of the United States, field organizer for Europe, giving full time service to the task. She travels from one part of the British Isles to another instituting new clubs and presiding at board meetings and more than once has tapped the gavel when air raid sirens were sounding outside the meeting place. Members of the local B. P. W. club are looking forward to an unusually enjoyable evening and extend a cordial invitation to all of the service clubs of the city and all those desiring to hear an up-to-the-minute view of the war in England.

Urges Indians Be Given Full U. S. Privileges

(International News Service) PHILIPSBURG, Pa., July 16.—Give the Red Man U. S. citizenship with full privileges, is the plea of Jim Thorpe, all-around star Indian athlete of three decades ago.

Members of his race, according to Thorpe, the old Carlisle Indian star, technically are still prisoners of war and wards of the government when they should be a part of it.

Being an Indian has its advantages, though Thorpe stated, since they are not governed by game laws and can hunt anywhere and anytime they desire without requiring a license.

Judy Canova Is Seeking Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., July 16.—Judy Canova, the Jenny Lind of the Ozarks, tonight found that the romantic caresses of a Hawaiian moon didn't last after a few weeks on the mainland. She asked for a divorce or annulment of her marriage to Army Corp. James H. Ripley during a vacation trip to the islands.

But today she admitted that the effect of the moon wore off quickly and that Ripley was guilty of treating her in a "cruel and inhuman manner."

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT Mrs. Nancy Benedict of South New Castle Boro has received word of the promotion of her son, Harold James Benedict, from corporal to sergeant. He is attached to Second Battalion Service Battery, 190th Field Artillery, stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss.

Reach Agreement On Big Truck Bill

Raises Legal Weight Limit
From 39,000 To 42,000
Pounds—Sent To Governor

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, July 16.—The bitter fight over enactment of the so-called big truck bill ended today in an agreement raising the legal limit of heavy trucks on Pennsylvania highways from 39,000 to 42,000 pounds.

Easily one of the most controversial issues of the long session, the Fiss-Welsh measure as amended by the senate fails to give Pennsylvania truckers parity with competitors in adjoining states.

The measure was sent to Gov. Arthur H. James for his consideration after the house yielded in its insistence upon a 50,000-pound weight limit and agreed to the 42,000-pound figure voted by the senate. Agreement ended a bitter partisan fight that for weeks had blocked adjournment.

Truckers, who were insisting on at least 45,000 pounds, were disappointed by Republican efforts to defeat any attempt to raise the weights above 42,000 pounds.

WOMAN SUFFERS HIP FRACTURE IN FALL

Mrs. Dora Kaatz, aged 60, wife of Fred E. Kaatz, of 1027 Adams street, is undergoing treatment in the Jameson Memorial hospital for a fracture of the hip, received Tuesday evening when she fell down the cellar stairway of her home.

She was removed to the hospital in an ambulance, where she is getting along nicely.

YOUTH BREAKS ARM WHILE AT PLAY

The injured youth was brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital at 9:40 o'clock, where a splint was applied.

F. D. R.'s Daylight Saving Move Hit

'Father' Of 1918 Plan Raps
Year-Round Proposal Of President

WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Roosevelt's request for authority to order a far-flung extension of daylight saving time met opposition from the 1918 "father" of the plan, Robert Garland of Pittsburgh. "I wouldn't advocate sun-saving as a year-round proposition in the nation during the defense emergency and I don't think it will go through," said the elderly Pittsburgh ex-councilman.

"I think daylight time is a hardship in the winter months and there's no sense in it. You wouldn't be saving daylight in the winter months; you would just be putting a new time into effect."

Under the plan, which is designed to conserve electricity for defense production, Mr. Roosevelt could order clocks throughout the country, or in any part of the country, to be turned as much as two hours forward for the whole year or any part of the year. However, because the power situation varies in different localities, it was indicated that no blanket advance for the whole country was actually planned.

(In localities where daylight saving time is now in effect, it is invariably one hour ahead of standard time.)

Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio expressed doubt that daylight saving time would be necessary in his state since it borders the central-eastern time boundary.

One-Day Strike Has Been Ended

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, July 16.—Some 2,100 A. & P. employees returned to their posts today after voting to accept a company offer of a 48-hour week and various pay increases.

The union had asked for a 10-cent-an-hour general raise, but the compromise offer resulted in pay raises according to classifications, the A. F. of L. union leaders disclosed. The strike had been in progress just one day. Last night the employees voted 535 to 180 to accept the company's compromise offer and return to work.

The strike had affected all A. & P. stores in Western Pennsylvania serviced by the company's Pittsburgh warehouses.

The coldest winter of which there is a record was in the year 1709 when in Europe frost penetrated the ground to a depth of three yards; the Adriatic was frozen over, as was also the coast of the Mediterranean.

Charge Youth Posed As Noted John J. Astor III

Pittsburgh Reports New Castle Man In Conference With Him At Pittsburgh

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, July 16.—A 20-year-old youth who allegedly represented himself as John Jacob Astor, III, was in jail today charged with vagrancy and defrauding the William Penn hotel out of $20 room rent.

City detectives identified him as John Carter, 20, of San Antonio, Tex. He was picked up after members of the Astor family notified Pittsburgh police that none of their clan was in Pittsburgh at this time.

The youth's deception, according to detectives, caused two prominent Texans to fly to Pittsburgh to transact business with the allegedly bogus Astor, and police say, brought another man from New Castle, Pa., in an alleged coal property deal.

The youth also visited M. L. Benadum and Joseph C. Trees, Pittsburgh oil operators, in their local office yesterday and assertedly represented himself as a son of Amos Carter, prominent Texas publisher and oil man, police added.

City detectives took him in custody while he was engaged in a "business" conference with a Mr. Fitch from Texas and a Mr. Rice from New Castle, M. Eskridge, also of Texas, who flew to Pittsburgh to meet the youth, told police he thought he knew him as a young Texan who had spent some time in Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore following an accident in which his head was injured.

The chimney swift has the unusual power of flying straight up and down, which makes it possible for it to get in and out of vertical apertures.

War Brings Many Library Queries

Citizens Seek Information As To Localities Mentioned In War Reports

Do you know the geographical location of Minsk, Kiev, Acre, Kamchatka or Lwow?

Miss Rose Barber, reference librarian at the New Castle Free Public Library knows, for during the past few months she has been called upon on numerous occasions to locate such things for persons who desire to determine the location of places mentioned in the days news. With the Map of Europe changing so rapidly these days, it is almost impossible to determine what countries are still in existence, or under what flag they are being governed.

This is another service that Miss Barber tries to render to the best of her ability. The library received at various intervals loose leaf map supplements to keep them posted as to the latest boundary line changes and the like.

These maps, together with a close inspection of the war news each day by Miss Barber, keeps the library's information on the foreign situation right up to date.

In addition to these new-type maps, there is a new globe on the market that was demonstrated to the library last week. This globe is so constructed that revised sections may be inserted at any spot on the world at various intervals to keep the globe abreast with the times.

Even with all these questions, the usual run of questions on nearly every subject are still received by the library, keeping Miss Barber and her reference staff busy.

Most frequent callers at the library are the puzzle and contest fans. There are evidently contestants and puzzles devised on every imaginable subject, judging from the varied information sought by the library patrons.

Answers to some of the many questions may be given readily by Miss Barber, others require a bit of research and still others may require hours of study and work to find all of the information desired.

C. I. O. Leader And Two Strikers Are Under Arrest

General Move Made To Halt Disorders At West Penn Hospital

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, July 16.—In a general move to halt disorders at the strike-bound West Penn hospital, a CIO leader and two strikers were arrested today on orders of Judge Samuel H. Gardner for a hearing tomorrow.

District Attorney Andrew T. Park, who petitioned for the court order under an old English act for the formal arrests so the men could be taken into custody by the sheriff, disclosed that they had been held in secret custody since Monday.

Park said the plan was to seek $5,000 surety of peace bonds from all strike participants who are fined by police arrests or held for court. "It is entirely a matter for the court from now on," he added. "If the court will back us up, there will be no more disorders at the hospital."

Those arrested were Jack Strobel, CIO-state, county & municipal workers leader; Frank August, 23, and Walter Bunecke, 21, both strikers.

Hunt Assailant Of Young Woman At State College

(International News Service) STATE COLLEGE, Pa., July 16.—Police searched today for an unidentified assailant routed by plucky Katherine Breon when he tried to seize her on a darkened street.

Molesting of Miss Breon, 21, was the fourth such incident reported to borough authorities in the last five months.

The young woman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Breon, said she was walking home about midnight when a man grabbed her arm, attempted to strike her and then darted away. A few blocks farther on, the man reappeared and struck her on the head but she fought him off and ran to a nearby residence for help.

The attack on Miss Breon spurred the search for Dorothy June Bechtel, 15, and Isabelle Albright, 19, missing since they left to go roller skating at an amusement park, 15 miles from State College, late yesterday.

The girls were last seen leaving the park in an automobile which appeared headed for Lock Haven.

STORM AID SAFECRACKERS

International News Service—BIG SPRINGS, Tex.—A rumbling thunderstorm worked to the advantage of safecrackers in Big Springs. For it was while lightning flashed and thunder rolled that two safes in business establishments were blown to bits and more than $300 in loot removed in this West Texas town. They used the old-fashioned and noisy nitroglycerine method of entrance, rather than modern knob-knockers—the thunder covered up the sound of the blast.

NEW TALKING BIRD AT ZOO

International News Service—ST. LOUIS—A new talking minah bird has arrived at the St. Louis Zoo. However, the only words it uttered were "Let that alone." Zoo attendants could only guess where it learned the phrase.

Old Timers Day Plans Progress

Expect Annual Reunion On August 20 To Eclipse Last Year's Success

MANY ATTENDED
FROM FAR AWAY

While last year's Old Timers Day Reunion at Cascade Park was one of the most successful held in many years, this year's event is expected to eclipse it, and to prove one of the most enjoyable gatherings in the past decade, President Fred B. Sankey states. The date will be Wednesday, August 20.

Members of local pioneer families are being urged by President Sankey to send the announcement of the date to their friends who live at a distance, so that they can arrange their vacations to be here when the great day arrives again this year. This can be done by mailing them a copy of the paper containing announcements of the event, he stated.

Many Coming Back

In commenting on last year's gathering, Mr. Sankey stated that the attendance was the largest in some years, and was marked by the attendance of many descendants of pioneer families who had not attended for a number of years, all of whom vowed to be back this year. The registration booth was kept busy all afternoon, registering the names of Old Timers, whose ages ranged from 70 to 94 years. In looking over this list, it was interesting to note the remarks which appeared after the names. These included, "Lived in New Castle fifty-five years," or "Just celebrated 59th wedding anniversary." One said, "Have been away from New Castle 55 years, and another taught school in New Castle 52 years ago." One said, "Married for 62 years," and the age of the youngest registrant said, "Age one year."

States which were represented last year, included, California, Florida, New York, Massachusetts, Michigan, Illinois, Missouri, North Carolina, and there were many from Ohio and immediately adjoining states.

In commenting on the day, Mr. Sankey, said that the founders of Old Timers Day build better than they knew, as the day has become a source of tremendous gratification to many older people because they know they can come and greet the friends of their youth, all of whom will make New Castle their mecca on that day, and they will not have to travel a tremendous distance to see those dear friends of their youth.

U. S. Consular Representatives Leaving Italy

(International News Service)
ROME, July 16.—Marking severance of consular relations for the first time since the infancy of the United States, a consular train bearing American consuls and their families—altogether a party of 78—left Rome last night as the first step in the return of the Americans to their homeland.

Included in the party were Charge D'Affaires Leslie Reed and 13 other officials formerly stationed at Athens prior to its conquest and occupation of the Axis powers.

Only one unscheduled scene, and that a poignant one, marked the departure. It arose when an American citizen, Mrs. Emilia Rosano, who is married to an Italian now serving with this nation's armed forces, decided at the last minute that she preferred to remain in Italy.

Her mother, Mrs. Guglielma Pepe, also an American, staged a hysterical scene at the station, and both women started for home. The train was delayed 40 minutes while police brought them back and compelled them to board the train.

Departure of the officials left Italy without an American consul for the first time since 1798, when John Adams, second president of the United States, was chief executive.

Plans Also Made To Take Part In Golf Match At Coraopolis

ELLWOOD CITY, July 16.—At a meeting of the Kiwanis club Tuesday evening at the Lutheran church it was announced that a delegation of the local club will participate in the golf match which is being sponsored soon by the Coraopolis club at the Montour Country club. Mr. Long traced the gradual development of the system from its original Greco-Roman origin and subsequent progress in England, in England and in the United States, which borrowed this institution from the mother country, the jury system has seen its most extensive use and highest development.

The "grand jury," on the other hand, is a product of the Italian and Spanish Inquisition. The speaker left the thought that as democracy advances in a nation, the power of the jury trial increases.

British Announce Air Raid Deaths

Reveal 41,900 Civilians Killed By German Raids From January 1940 To July, 1941

(International News Service) LONDON, July 16.—The British government lifted the veil on air raid casualties for the first time in many months today and revealed that from January 1, 1940, to the end of June, 1941, approximately 41,900 civilians had been killed by German bombs.

In addition, 52,678 persons were sent to hospitals with air raid injuries.

The vast bulk of these casualties occurred during the terrific German "blitz" attacks upon London in September of last year.

The word "candidate" is derived from the Latin "candidatus" (clothed in white). It was a custom for ancient Roman office seekers to clothe themselves in white togas before appearing in public places. This signified their purity, freedom from bias, and a disposition to judge and think according to truth and justice.

Aluminum Campaign To Be Held July 24

Boy And Girl Scouts Will Take Charge Of Collections In Ellwood

ELLWOOD CITY, July 16.—Ellwood City will be asked, on Thursday, July 24, to add its weight in the present national drive to add old aluminum to the depleted stocks of that commodity.

To accomplish this, a committee meeting of local organization representatives was held Tuesday evening, July 15, at the invitation of the Junior Chamber of Commerce who will sponsor the campaign in this locality.

The Junior Chamber accepted this responsibility at the request of the Lawrence County Defense Council which is, in turn, an agency of the National Defense Council headed by Fiorella LaGuardia, Mayor of New York City.

Under the program planned by the county organization the aluminum campaign will be held separately in four divisions: New Castle, Ellwood City, Bessemer and New Wilmington.

Representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce at yesterday's meeting were Norman Welling, James Keller and Jack Zeigler; for the Sons of Italy, Angelo Squicquero; for the Girl Scouts, Mrs. J. Emmett Lieberdort and Mrs. John H. Hough; for the Boy Scouts, Elden Danner and W. Boyd Barst.

It was agreed that that actual collection should be completed in one day, July 24, by the boy and girl scouts. The collection details were left to the scout organizations for development. It is expected that assistance will be rendered in the matter of trucks by the municipal and police authorities.

This aluminum collection campaign will include the outlying districts of the community which fall within its jurisdiction. The girl scouts will have sole charge of the collection as they have the only organization in that vicinity. It is a request of the committee that the citizens of this borough and adjacent regions keep this date in mind and to contribute insofar as they are able.

Assail Statements Made By British Visitor At Boston

(International News Service) CHICAGO, July 16.—The recent statements in Boston by Col. Josiah C. Wedgwood, British M. P., that the United States already is in the European war today drew a sharp retort from Gen. Robert E. Wood, national chairman of the American first committee.

Asserting Col. Wedgwood's remarks were an "affront" to Congress, Gen. Wood added: "I think Col. Wedgwood presumes too much upon American friendliness and hospitality when he undertakes to tell us that we are afraid to assume responsibility and that we need a 'sensible Congress.' When 80 per cent of the American people oppose our entry into war, it is an irony to be told by a visiting Englishman that we are already in the war 'up to our necks.'"

"No matter how Col. Wedgwood feels, America will not be in the war until our Congress says so."

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder of Butler came to Gardner and took their cousin, Miss Louise Wigton, to visit at their home and also at the homes of other Butler relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wigton and Mr. and Mrs. Borland, parents of Dr. Borland of New Castle. Joe Louis Puts Advertisement In Chicago Paper

Signalizes End Of Reconciliation Attempts In Wife's Divorce Suit

(International News Service) CHICAGO, July 16.—A "personal" ad inserted in Chicago newspapers by heavyweight Champion Joe Louis today apparently signalled the end of reconciliation attempts between the Brown Bomber and his estranged wife, the former Marva Trotter.

The notice read: "Not resp. for debts cont. by anyone but myself."

Joe Louis Barrow, 550 E. 61st St., William H. Temple, the Bomber's attorney, admitted the notice had been placed in behalf of the champion and was aimed at Mrs. Louis. He would not comment further.

Mrs. Louis, however, said she had not expected Joe to take such a step. "I am surprised by this," she admitted, "but I don't suppose I should be. As the situation now stands the whole thing will be cleared up by Saturday, either by a reconciliation or absolute divorce."

"I love Joe and always will, but he never stays on one side of the fence—one moment he wants a reconciliation and the next he doesn't. I'm sure of one thing, I'll not fight him in the courts. If there is going to be a divorce we will make an out of court settlement and then go before the court for a decree."

Louis himself was out of the city. Temple said. The lawyer would not comment on a report a property settlement already had been arranged.

"Seeing Eye" Dog Reported Dying

Dog Pal Of Victor Wagner Is Near Death—Known To Hundreds Here

"Vonnie," seven-year-old German shepherd Seeing Eye dog of Victor Wagner, popular Croton avenue youth, is dying this afternoon.

Six weeks ago Vonnie took ill, and since that time Dr. J. Robert Brown, veterinarian, has kept close watch over him. Today, however, the faithful guide of Victor is "seriously ill" and will be "put to sleep" within a day or so.

Young Victor said Vonnie will be buried on the farm owned by Dr. Brown's father. He'll get a fitting funeral.

Tentative plans of young Victor are to go to the Seeing Eye school at Morristown, N. J., about October 12 to train with another Seeing Eye dog. The course of training lasts a month.

Vonnie, familiar to New Castle residents, first came here as Wagner's guide September 5, 1935.

The lads, Earl James Renoe, 16, of Clearfield and Jack Orville Vallmont, 16, of Frenchville RFD, drowned in seven feet of water while swimming in Mosquito creek near Karhuas last night.

Dairy Farmers Hail Measure

Conference Report On Dairy Advisory Council Bill Is Given Approval

By JOHN PAGET International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, July 16.—Legislative approval of the Moul-Wooding bill to set up a dairy advisory council and empower it to establish uniform milk inspection standards was hailed as a victory for the state's dairy farmers today.

A conference report on the House-approved measure was adopted yesterday by the Senate 27 to 17 after spirited debate, and the bill sent to the governor. It would repeal all milk ordinances formulated by Philadelphia and other cities which exceed new standards to be decided upon by June 1, 1942.

Enactment of the bill was viewed by Senator Weldon B. Heyburn (R) Delaware, as a victory for dairy farmers inasmuch as it would eliminate a multiplicity of local ordinances. Standards to be set by the dairy council next year would supercede all local regulations, he explained.

"The farmers do not care how high the standards are made," he said. "As far as they are concerned the sky's the limit. They only want uniformity. This measure should put to an end the spectacle of a great industry being harassed by a lot of silly inspectors."

Much Activity At Camp East Brook

There's more than the East Brook bell ringing at camp lately, for six winners, recently given to the camp, have been seeing lots of action. Bathing suits slip through them at regular intervals. It's quite surprising how industrious the everyone appears since the winners arrived. Campers have been kindly offering to bring out everyone else's bathing suit. Counselors, however, seem to be the only ones who willingly grant others the privilege.

More unusual ringing occurred at the end of Monday's rest hour. Kitchen utensils were again whipped into shape by the counselors to create a distinguished sound. At the first clatter, campers bounded from their cabins to the dining room. Each was rewarded for her speed with a paper cup of pop corn. Thus last period's doughnut bell was turned into a popcorn one.

Dramatic classes in the afternoon made dance programs for Thursday evening's patriotic ball. Dance arrangements are now being made. Everything will be in readiness soon.

Mrs. Mills' delicious chicken soup gave the campers lots of energy for their evening's program—an all-campers' volleyball game. The Sheango, Mahoning and Lakewood cabins, boasting "Kit" and "Skipper" as fellow players, came out victorious. The game was followed by an evening dip for the entire camp.

Evening worship was in charge of Harbor Cabin. Ann Cooper, Ruth Edlestein, Ann Groden, Jean Kelly and Shirley Davids contributed

'Non-Terrifying' Gas-Mask Is Being Tested By Army

Mask Features Transparent Motif With Frameless Eye-Pieces Fitted Into the Material

By JERRY BRONDFIELD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

AKRON, O., July 16.—If and when war comes to America with all its attendant evils and horrors the women of this country may offer a unique vote of thanks to Charles W. Legullion.

Legullion, it may develop, has conquered that drawback to beauty known as "gas-mask blight."

As manager of the machine and process development division of the R. F. Goodrich Co., Legullion has invented a "non-terrifying" gas-mask, guaranteed not to scare babies and which enables a pretty girl to don the protection and, of all things, remain pretty.

The new mask is made of a transparent, thermoplastic material known as koroel, and is now undergoing tests by the army.

Contract With Today's Masks
Most masks used here and abroad today transform the wearer into apparitions ranging from Mickey Mouse with his nose in a trap to someone who looked as though he had put on a horse's head and then ran the bathroom pipes through it.

Legullion didn't start looking for a mask which would better satisfy the esthetic spirit. He was looking for a mask that would improve resistance to all types of poisonous and noxious gasses and dust.

Prof. McKee Scans Business Horizon In Talk To Lions

Outlines Situation That Business Must Confront In Future In America

American business, riding the crest of a wave boom, sooner or later will come face to face with four salient "musts," New Castle Lions club members were told yesterday by Prof. Captain William McKee, of New Wilmington, head of Westminister college's department of economics and business administration.

In the order of their importance, Prof. McKee listed them like this:
(1) The nation, first and above everything else, must attend to its national defense.
(2) There must be more economic security for the individual.
(3) There must then be a revision of our system of competition.
(4) And finally, there must be a new schedule of business ethics.

Prof. McKee, speaking at luncheon in The Castleton, based most of his remarks on a new publication of the National Association of Manufacturers which portrays the current thought of leading economists on the country's economic future.

The Lions' public affairs committee, through Chairman John B. Waddington, will offer the club's support to the city-wide drive for scrap aluminum.

President Harding H. Thayer, who leaves soon for the July 22-25 convention of Lions International in New Orleans, was instructed by his fellow members to vote for Carbis A. Walker, of Winston-Salem, N. C., for third vice president of International Walker, a native of Lawrence county, often visits the New Castle club when in this section. He is now a director of the international organization.

Mrs. Thayer will accompany her husband south.

Dodgers Hustling, May Win Pennant

Defeat Cubs Twice Tuesday
To Go Four Games Ahead
Of Cardinals

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 16.—The only thing hotter than the weather around here today is a Dodger fan. Of course, the Dodger pitchers also are pretty hot right now, but they are all icebergs compared to the wild-eyed boys who root for them.

And we can think of no faster means of inviting trouble than to drop a suggestion somewhere on the other side of the Brooklyn bridge that the Dodgers won't win the pennant.

Pay Off Mortgage
While the Giants were playing to 3,500 yesterday, the Dodgers were playing to 35,000 of their rabid followers, and that crowd shot the Dodger attendance for home games this season up to the 700,000 mark.

Larry MacPhail is confident his club will draw at least a million and a quarter at home this year, and that will go a long way toward paying off the balance of the mortgage on the old Dodger homestead.

Nevertheless, Larry is worried sick over plans for the world series. He realizes that his club and the Yankees could draw 150,000 to every world series game if they had a place to put them.

Play Cards Tonight
However, the Cardinals, who come in here for a night game with the Dodgers tonight, may save Larry a lot of worry. True, the Cards are four games off the pace, but it is still a long way to the finish.

The Cards had to travel 16 innings yesterday to get a 3-2 decision over the lowly Phils while the Dodgers were taking a pair from the Cubs, 7-0, behind Curt Davis' four-hitter and 2-4 behind Luke Hamlin's six-hitter. In the last three games the Cubs made two, four and six hits off Dodger pitching.

Pirates Top Giants
Max Butcher tamed the Giants, 5-1, for the Pirates, and Johnny Vander Meer gave the Braves only four hits to notch a 3-0 victory for the Reds.

The Yanks staggered through to a 5-4 decision over the White Sox and Joe DiMaggio ran his hitting streak through 55 games with a single and double. Today the Yanks, bolstered by a five-game lead, take on the Indians, who dropped one to Joe Dobson of the Red Sox yesterday, 6-2.

The Senators and Browns were idle, but Buck Newsom, rapidly returning to his old form, downed the Mackmen, 3-2, on the wings of a McCosky-fashioned homer.

Sailboat Race;
The fishing derby actually begins Wednesday, July 16, at midnight when anglers from Ohio and Pennsylvania will try their skill in the largest artificial lake within the borders of the Keystone State. Fishing competition will continue until Saturday afternoon when catches will be registered and weighed.

On Saturday, afternoon events will include fly and bait-casting contests and a sailboat race in which a dozen boats are expected to be entered.

Clair J. Saylor, chairman, said this is to be the first Annual Pymatuning Fishing Derby.

SUB-PAR GOLF SHOT BY MANY

Ted Lach, Sylvan Heights protege, perhaps the youngest entry in the National Public Links tournament, which is being staged this week on the tricky Indian Canyon course at Spokane, Wash., survived the qualifying round yesterday, scoring a 149 to be among the 64 left who will compete for the national title, out of a field of 178 aspirants.

Lach was seven over par in his 36 holes, tying Andy Swedko and Sam Musico of Pittsburgh, the only others from the Western Pennsylvania district listed in early dispatches as qualifiers.

Young Jimmy Clark, Long Beach, Calif., aircraft worker, won medal honors with a score of 135 in the qualifying round, setting an all-time record for public links tourney play. Clark shot par yesterday to add to his seven-under score of Monday.

Youth seems to be leading the field in the national public links play. Clark, the medalist, being 29 years of age. Standing next to him is William Kornis, 18-year-old University of Utah freshman from Salt Lake City, who also boasts a three-under par score for his 36 holes of 139. A score of 151 was necessary to qualify. Lach, local entry, is but 16 years of age.

Steve Swedko of Pittsburgh, last year's champion is not listed among the qualifiers. He went bad on opening day with a 74, and was not listed among those with a score of 150 or better, after the end of two days play.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Illinois has retained Bob Zuppke, head football coach and given Wendell Wilson, athletic director, a leave of absence for one year. This will end their squabble for the time being. Meanwhile, Wilson asserted he was surprised at the action of Red Grange, former "T" of Illinois who has filed suit for $50,000 damages against Wilson for an alleged "malicious, false, slanderous and defamatory statement."

Billy Soose, middleweight champion, was being honored today at Farrell, . . . Buddy Baer and Abe Simon, mastodontic glove-tossers, are scheduled to fight September 5 in New York. . . . More than 700,000 fans have paid to see the Dodgers play this season.

Jimmy Clark, a Long Beach, Calif., aircraft worker, set an all-time record with a score of 135 in the 36-hole qualifying round in the National Public Links tourney yesterday at Spokane. The old qualifying record was 138, made last year by Ed. Purgol of Detroit and Victor Stimits of Colorado Springs, shared the old mark in a deadlock at Detroit.

George (Doc) Fisher of Youngstown and the writer met here yesterday. He will remember by veterans like George Chip, the ex-champion middleweight. Incidentally George yesterday received via U.S. mail a card from a friend addressed only as "The Ex-Middleweight Champion."

Once the greatest middleweight of all, now an opponent for youthful title aspirants. This is the way of fistic gentlemen and Teddy Yaroze is occupying that role. He is scheduled to battle Sammy Secret in Pittsburgh, Monday night.

Warren Wright's Whirlaway, king of the 3-year-olds, turned in an exciting work-out at Arlington track yesterday by jumping to victory in the $5,000 special mile-and-a-furlong race. Jockey Eads brought the king of horses from the outside after he had lost an early lead to win the event.

FLATS VS. BUSH
One of the biggest crowds of the season is expected to watch Clifton Flats face the undefeated Bush A. C. in a second half City-County Independent Baseball league game. The game is carded for Clifton Flats field tonight.

Night Turn League
At Johnson Bronze

The Dodgers defeated the Pirates, 16 to 9, in a Johnson Bronze Night Turn Softball league game at Gaston park on Tuesday morning. The winning hurler was Evans, the loser was McCormick.

The Dodgers had a big first inning, scoring seven runs, but the Pirates also got hot in the second and third innings, scored seven runs, after the Dodgers had batted in three more to make it 10 to 7 at the end of the third inning.

Giancola for the Pirates had a homer, with McCormick, Newkirk and A. Fraser having triples.

The Dodgers are from the Babbitt shop and the Pirates from the Sheet Metal room. There are two other teams in the league—the Giants and Cardinals. Washington Field and Gaston Park are being utilized by the league for morning games.

Score by innings: R H E
Pirates 043 110 0-9 12 0
Dodgers 730 420 x-16 18 0

Batteries: Dodgers: Evans, Fraser and Miller; Pirates: Newkirk, McCormick and Bieriotti.

Sports shortsies off the cuff and whatever happened to Jim Farley's plan to purchase the New York Yankees?

Big Socrates "Socks" Roussos will trot onto the gridiron this fall minus his tonsils. The ex-New Castle high lineman is improving nicely in New Castle hospital following the minor operation performed yesterday. The south side star athlete looms as one of the key men on West Virginia Wesleyan's 1941 pigskin combination.

Chicago is a woebegone place these days. With the Chicago White Sox doing a typical Macy bargain basement business, the Cubs figure to lose $350,000. The club is one of the chief disappointments of the season. Phil Wrigley, the owner, is on the verge of calling it a day. Jimmy Wilson, the toast of baseball following the last world series, is another guy named Joe, so far as Cub followers are concerned.

Victorious in 29 out of 31 melees. Russ Baxter, the blond leatherfist kid, jeopardizes an exceedingly fancy ring record tonight when he faces George Molten, of Aliquippa reportedly wields a sledge hammer in either mitt. On the same program "Baby Face" Leisure exchanges socks with Carl DeJohn, of Canonsburg.

An idle thought that may cool you a bit: In about five weeks, Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh chapters his New Castle high "Hurricane" football contingent to Muddy Creek Falls for annual fall maneuvers. . . . "Lindy" Lauro, the tractor-like fullback, enrolls at the University of Tennessee this fall. This corner has been reliably informed.

The club shapes up as a typical Pacific Coast aggregation. The sale of Billy Herman was the pay-off in the annals of the game, that deal will go down as boner No. 1. Herman, who is being credited with keeping the Dodgers in first place, was the Cubs' right arm. Unless a reformation takes place, the plight of the once formidable Cubs will be a sad, sad one.

Diamond moguls are urging Connie Mack to write a book, "Forty Years in a Dugout." His views would be of incalculable value to future stars and officials. . . . As ineffective as Paul Derringer seems to be these days, he's still one of the game's best control pitchers. In his first 19 games, the Cincy star has passed out only 38 tickets to first. His average for a season is lower than 50.

All-Star Battle
At Minneapolis

AL-STARBATTLES—SPORTS
MINNEAPOLIS, July 16.—The American Association all-stars will take the field against the Minneapolis Millers tonight as slight favorites to defeat the local nine in the association's annual mid-season baseball classic.

Tom Sheehan, manager of the Millers, has announced he will start Elton "Chief" Hogsett on the mound, while Billy Meyer of Kansas City, pilot of the All-Stars, selected Raymond Starr of Indianapolis as his lead-off pitcher.

Fair weather was in prospect for the game to be played in the Millers' home park, Nicollet. Among notables scheduled to attend were Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, George M. Trautman, association president, and Will Harbridge, president of the American league.

GLOVE DOESN'T COUNT
Pepper Martin, when with the Cardinals, was a great idol of the youngsters because he often traded his glove for one of the kids' drug-store gloves. Then he'd go to his position with his cheap glove.

Illinois Board Retains Zuppke As Grid Coach

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, July 16.—The athletic board of the University of Illinois, meeting in Chicago Tuesday voted to retain Wendell Wilson and Robert Zuppke, director of athletic and head football coach respectively of the university, for one year. Wilson, however, was granted a year's leave of absence.

Following their decision, members of the athletic board resigned in a body, then the board of trustees of Illinois, went into session to consider the matter.

Pirates Cancel
Parker's Option

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 16.—The Pittsburgh Baseball club announced Tuesday that it had cancelled its option on Ace Parker, diamond and football star now playing with the Portsmouth, Va. club of the Piedmont league. Parker is a member of Jock Sutherland's Brooklyn Dodgers, of the pro football league.

Two Games In Lawrence Loop

James P. Martin, secretary of the Lawrence County Baseball league announced two games for today, both of which are due to start at 5:45 p. m. Bessemer will play at Wainpump and Hillsville will play at Ellwood City. Ellwood City won the first half with Bessemer finishing second. Hillsville strengthened its team and has been playing fast ball.

GETS HOMER BALL
NEW YORK—Joe DiMaggio's 19th home run of the season, extending his consecutive-game hitting record to 46, went over the railing between the 402 and 415-foot markers at Yankee Stadium. The ball was caught by John Schulte, the New York's bull-pen catcher.

Milsoms-Saints Battle Tonight

The Baker T. Washington Community Center field will be the scene tonight of a baseball game that will send the recently organized St. Margaret's Society team into action against the Milsons colored team. The game will start at 6 o'clock.

The Saints recently handed the colored boys a 5 to 4 setback and the Milsons are out for revenge tonight.

Phil Colella, a newcomer here in New Castle may take the mound for the Saints, with Denny also ready for mound duty. Either Johnson or Gray will be on the hill for the Milsons. It was announced.

Derringer Says Legs Are Vital

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—BACK TOGETHER AGAIN

During a recent interview, Paul Derringer, star Cincinnati pitcher, asserted that lack of condition results in poor pitching.

He pointed out that the condition of legs ranks as one of the most important factors in pitching. "Most hurlers concentrate on their arms and forget about their legs. No pitcher will ever be a major league pitcher unless his legs are in first class condition. You must have balance in pitching. You can't have balance if your legs are not in the proper condition," Derringer pointed out.

British Relief Society Is Busy

Lawrence County Unit Has Accomplished Much During Year Of Organization

MRS. D. W. THOMAS UNIT PRESIDENT

Organized one year ago, the Lawrence county unit of the British War Relief society has accomplished a great amount of work and has sent much needed supplies to Great Britain to assist in keeping the people of the British Isles comfortable under the onslaughts of Germany.

Officers of the local unit elected to serve for the coming year are: Mrs. D. W. Thomas, president; Miss Elizabeth Rees, vice president; H. T. Jones, chairman of ways and means committee; E. S. Marsh, secretary; T. G. Lewis, treasurer; L. J. Lewis, special committee chairman.

The monthly meeting of the Lawrence county unit will take place Friday evening at eight o'clock in the Congregational church, on East Reynolds street, and the regional unit, composed of 60 units in western Pennsylvania, will take place Saturday afternoon in the Trinity Cathedral, Pittsburgh.

Many cases of good used clothing has been collected and shipped to England, while knitted garments have been made with wool and needles furnished by the society. Medical supplies and surgical dressings have been provided by the group which meets each Wednesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. At present children's dresses and garments are being made from the materials furnished by the Pittsburgh office.

In addition to the New Castle group, the Lawrence county unit has a sub-committee organized and functioning in New Wilmington, with Mrs. D. W. Fernhout president. Another active unit is local in Mt. Jackson, headed by the Friendship Circle of the Mt. Jackson U. P. church, of which Mrs.

Wilda Ferree is president. Mrs. Ellis Craig, Mrs. Ruth Kildoo and Mrs. Molly Mollenkopf are members of the working committee, which is making children's dresses and comforts.

That the children of England are grateful for the wonderful help furnished by the workers in the British War Relief and American Red Cross is attested by the messages of gratitude received from them. Mrs. Thomas states. The work of the two organizations is not duplicated, each operating under specific regulations which do not overlap.

Says Information Is Leaking Out

Confidential Facts Are Being Revealed, Senate Defense Committee Is Told

By GRIFFING BANCROFT International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Confidential information is leaking out of the war and state departments, the Senate defense committee was told Tuesday afternoon.

With Undersecretary of War Patterson stating frankly that there are "grapevines running out of the war department," Senator Connally (D., Tex.) asserted that "even a lot of state department information is getting out that should not."

The situation was described after Patterson, detailing progress of the rearmament program, declined to give details of airplane production. Senator Connally called attention to the fact that the office of production management gives out figures monthly.

"It looks as if the O. P. M. is branching out to run the whole government," Connally said.

Patterson explained that the airplane production figures of O. P. M. do not include types.

"Apparently we have grapevines running out of the war department," said Patterson. "Frequently I see stories in the press which are not ready for publication. If we chopped down all the grapevines running out of the war department, we'd be like Jack cutting down the bean-stalk."

Americans, once awake, will not accept defeat; and the longer we delay action, the more victory will cost us.

While no definite commitments were made by the county commissioners on Tuesday, to build a bridge across the Neshannock Creek near the foot of Mercer street, they did agree to get prices upon a bridge with the possibility of looking into the question further.

The agreement to look into prices came after a rather heated session with a committee of citizens consisting of C. Edward Smith, Jr., S. D. Pearson, Norman E. Clarke, Q. A. McBride and James B. Foster.

During the conference the committee charged that New Castle was mitigated against by the county commissioners in that no improvements were made here with county money.

Commissioners Walton and Bollinger said they had not said they were opposed to a bridge but they wanted to investigate the possibilities of other means of relieving traffic congestion on Washington street.

Said C. Ed Smith, Jr., "What we want is an answer as to whether or not you men are opposed to the bridge. If you are then there is no reason wasting our time and yours."

Norman E. Clarke suggested that the commissioners get prices on a bridge as a start towards the solution of the traffic problem. This was finally agreed to.

Highway Superintendent Edward O. Reed has made the statement that the highway department will start resurfacing North Liberty street from the Lawrence school to Madison avenue on about Thursday. The highway will be closed while the work is going on.

During the month of June the county expenditures from the general fund were $23,583.88 according to a compilation made by the county controller. The expenditures are divided as follows: Commissioners' office, $3,212.43; court house maintenance, $1,691.36; permanent registration, $708.25; tax assessment, $22.50; county treasurer, $1,590.17; controller's office, $777.23.

Register and recorder, $1,329.49; sheriff, $1,015.11; coroner, $105; probate, $1,333.27; district attorney, $1,566.23; law library, $108.80; courts, $2,900.65; justices and aldermen, $303.80; constables, $230.95; probation and parole, $775.12.

Penal institutions, $1,664.79; county jail, $849.03; non-county institutions, $186.55; maintenance of children, $198.18; county superintendent of schools, $120.32; vital statistics, $1,132.

From the gasoline fund there was spent $460.25 of which $300 was damages. Other costs were salaries and construction costs.

From the institution fund there was spent $15,462.54. Of this total $508.71 went for the welfare department. For the county home, $4,010.69. County farm, $429.21. County insane, $7,909.48. Outdoor relief, $2,604.05.
